HOW IT WORKS

- ❖ We will talk about the theme of the lesson through two provided materials.
- ❖ Students will lead the conversation. The teacher will help you with the social/cultural context, word use, and give you suggestions when talking.
- ❖ Once you finish talking about one material, move on to the next.
- ❖ By the end of the class, students and teacher will summarize what have been discussed in class.

RULES

- ❖ No English!
- ❖ Going off topic is ok as long as the conversation is comprehensive. The material is only a starting point.
- ❖ Reply directly to other students' thoughts. No need to wait for the teacher to call your name.
- ❖ You can interrupt your teacher and speak up at any time. Don't be shy to speak. Do not wait for your name to be called.
- ❖ Be respectful.

WHAT TO KNOW

We are mimicking a natural real-life conversation. No script! You don't have to understand every word. It's OK to be messy and experimental. Just keep the conversation going with whatever you're having. No judging!

It's normal if you feel overwhelmed. Your teacher is always there to help.

SUGGESTIONS

Free Speaking can be about:

- Sharing personal experience
- Agreeing and disagreeing
- Challenging someone's ideas
- Dealing with a problem
- Discuss advantages and disadvantages
- Giving advice and solutions
- Persuading sb to do something

Tips to a great conversation: ask good questions.

Or, take this lesson again. Each discussion is different every time.
